SAYS KING EDWARD VII IS AMERICA'S CORDIAL FRIEND.

Speaker Henderson Gives the Result of His Half-Hour's Interview With England's Ruler.

ENGLAND A CERTAIN ALLY.

London, June 26.-David B. Henderson, peaker of the United States House of Representatives, said to a representative of the ciated Press to-night:

"I have never enjoyed a more agreeable half-hour interview than the one I had with King Edward yesterday. He was perfectly frank and agreeable and in accord with American progress. He looks forward to even more cordial relations than now exist between the English-speaking nations.
"America may depend upon the fact tha she has no more cordial friend in the world than King Edward.

"While the details of our conversation may not be repeated, I can assure my American friends that England may be de-American friends that England may be de-pended upon in any ordinary controversy which may arise between the United States and the rest of the world."

Representative Charles W. Gillett of New York who accompanied Mr. Henderson, also said to the representative of the Associated Press:

"We go to Skibo Castle, to visit the Carnegies, at the end of the week, and from there we go to the Continent. We expect to return to America in September. "We have been everywhere treated with the greatest kindness and can say that the cordiality extended to Mr. Henderson and myself while we have been in England has exceeded another we could have acticle

Challenge and Acceptance Results From the Banishment of Marquis de Lur-Saluces.

Paris, June 26.-When the Senate, as a high court of justice, reassembled to-day, ing the trial of the Marquis de Lur-Saluces, charged with treason, the Public Prosecutor, M. Bernard, resumed his speech, which was interrupted yesterday by the adjournment of the court. He dwelt at ength on the participation of the Marquis n the intrigues of the anti-Republical sagues and demanded his punishment.

The trial was concluded amid the general difference of the spectators. The Marquis was voted guilty of conspiracy by a vote of 71 to 51, and he was sentenced to banishment by a vote of 72 to 25. He leaves Paris to-night.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

El Paso, Tex., June 28.—P. D. Cunningham, chief the United States Boundary Commission, who left here May Il in charge of the allied boundary feets of the United States and Mexico to explore the big canyon of the Rio Grande, was brought back here to-day with one of his feet terribly swollen from the effects of a snake bite while diseping on the river bank.

Cunningham was awakened by feeling something crawling across his breast. He opened his eyes, and, giancing down, saw the disturber was a large snake. He kept quiet until the reptile crossed over him and then he sprang from under his blanket to the camp fire.

The snake, which proved to be a vicious water moccasin, gave chase, and, before Cunningham realized his danger, the reptile buried his fangs in his left foot. A member of the party sucked the poison from the wound, nevertheless the swelling was fearful and the injured man was given all the whisky he could drink and sent here for medical treatment.

SENATOR PLATT ON CUBA. Author of the Famous Amendment

Discusses Conditions.

New York, June 35.—The next issue of the Independent will contain a paper under the caption. "The Pacification of Cuba," written by Benator Orville H. Platt. In closing the writer uses these words:

"One question must be asked. Will the new Government succeed? Some conditions in Cuba are favorable to success some are not. The United States cannot be satisfied with the ordinary South American Republic there. It must be a real Republic that will insure our peace and quiet and safeguard our interest there. A mere paper republic with a virtual dictator, or constantly recurring revolutions would be nearly as disasterous to Cuba and dangerous to the United States as was the Spanish domination to which we put an ecd."

MAY DIE FROM INJURIES. Chicago Lawyer Offers $5,000,000 Mrs. Margaret Behan Fell Off Street Car.

In alighting from a Delmar avenue car at the corner of Grand and Finney avenues last night. Mrs. Margaret Behan, living at No. 3155 Sheridan avenue, was thrown to the pavement and seriously injured. She sustained concussion of the brain and was internally injured.

Mrs. Behan was returning home from Forest Park Highlanda, and was accompanied by her mother. Mrs. Margaret O'Connor of No. 3133 Thomas street. When the car stopped at Grand avenue several passengers got off, and Mrs. Behan was the last to reach the steps. It is supposed the car started before she safely alighted on the pavement, as she was thrown violently to the ground.

The injured woman was carried to the drug store on the corner, and Doctor C. C. Morris, superintendent of the St. Louis Baptist Hospital, was summoned. He pronounced her condition serious. She was removed to the Mulianphy Hospital.

The police were unable to learn the names of the conductor and motorman on the car as it proceeded on its journey as soon as the woman was carried to the drug store. The car was No. 2014.
